Country & threat briefs may be required prior to US officers going overseas

AARs;

1. Provide updated POC info to OSD.
2. Arrange host unit for exchange UK/FRG. (must be in active training status)
3. Begin coordination with FRG MOD and UK Service POCs (host unit, person, work) UK & FRG do not have DSN, need commercial numbers.
4. Update application process. RED info to info sheets for emergencies/App process, Ht, Wt, DOR, DOB, SSN; geographical request, + UK or FRG, unit type request.
5. Try to ensure host unit to guests is same as sending US unit. Try to have Sponsor as the one going overseas.
6. Request theater and Country clearances.
7. Arrange flights for overseas.
8. Coordinate travel flights for FRG to units ensure you provide closest airport to training site.

9. Arrange travel flights for UK to units from CONUS point of entry.
10. Arrange travel flights for US to UK and FRG (coordinate arrival to FRG)
11. Ensure units have sent training schedules to their guests with all activities included.
12. Verify information on guests and units are correct and that the hosting units are correct.
13. Verify guests and units are compatible. Either with Military or Civilian background.
14. Get biography on all selectees and ensure compatibility.
15. Ensure OSD gets itineraries of both guests and US officers.
16. Ensure that US have Home, work, and unit addresses, phones, faxes and senior commanders.
17. Try to avoid Changes to people and itineraries. Ensure applicants have correct dates and can attend/know that if they transfer to IRR no longer eligible, etc.
18. All US officers must have NATO orders.
19. Issue no cost Invitational Travel Orders to Germans – this allows them access to military posts and government rates on hotels etc. ITO's to UK – this allows them pay for travel from first arrival in Conus to their host units and return, and access to military posts and govt. rates on hotels etc.
20. Issue NATO Travel orders to UK & FRG personnel participating in flights outside US.
21. Issue ticket to UK officers upon arrival in CONUS. (e-ticket)
